By OLLIE P. LANDEN.

MISS EVELYN ELLISON is receiving at the Ellison home on Nevada street this afternoon at a tea of pretty detail given in honor of Misses Nellie and Lola Bess Smith, who recently returned from Austin, Texas, where they have been attending University of Texas. The receiving house is from 4 until 6 o'clock and the scene at the Ellison home is one of the prettiest of the season. Rainbow hotel guests are employed in decorations and the members of the house party, the hostess and her inner guests wear the latest of summer frocks in pastel shades.

Miss Mary Hoffmann receives the guests at the entrance of the reception room and the busy of the younger set assisting with the hospitality in the drawing room, where Miss Ellison and her honor guests are receiving. Included among the guests are Misses Nellie and Lola Bess Smith, who recently returned from Austin, Texas, where they have been attending University of Texas. The receiving house is from 4 until 6 o'clock and the scene at the Ellison home is one of the prettiest of the season. Rainbow hotel guests are employed in decorations and the members of the house party, the hostess and her inner guests wear the latest of summer frocks in pastel shades.

Flowers of decoration in the drawing room are an interesting of roses, sweet peas, gladioli, lilies, and dahlias. The table for the tea service in the dining room is exquisite in decorative detail. Sweet peas and carnations in rose shade decorated the table, and covers were of lavender and pink. The table is set with silver and crystal bowls of sweet peas. Lavender candles burn in crystal holders, which are ornamented with butterfly bows of pink tulle. The table is spread with elany lace and confetti reflect the lavender and pink tulle.

Cherry tea and cakes are being served at the table with Mrs. R. H. Ellison, mother of the hostess, Mrs. W. T. Hayes and Mrs. W. R. Smith presiding. The girls assisting in the dining room are Misses Nellie and Lola Bess Smith, who recently returned from Austin, Texas, where they have been attending University of Texas. ## Miss Laura Virginia Akard Becomes Bride Of Judge W. H. Winter Here

AMONG the interesting weddings of the season was that of Miss Laura Virginia Akard and Judge W. H. Winter, on Thursday.

The ceremony took place in the Episcopal church with the Rev. Dr. Foster Smith reading the lines of the service. The couple was unattended and only the relatives and most intimate friends were present.

The bride was dressed in a chic tulle gown of dark blue, and was accompanied by her maid of honor, Miss Josephine Leavelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leavelle.

The bride's father, Mr. W. D. Akard, of Dallas, was the best man. The ceremony was officiated by the Rev. Dr. Foster Smith.

BOARD OF PARDONS REMITS PRISONER IN FRED DELGADO CASE

A report was received here Friday that Fred Delgado, convicted in federal court in January 16, of conducting a disorderly house within 5 miles of a military camp, will be released from the county jail on June 16.

Delgado, a former peace officer here, was sentenced to serve six months in the county jail and pay a fine of $100. It was recommended that he be required to serve the jail sentence and that the fine should be remitted. The word received here was to the effect that this had been granted by the federal board of pardons. Delgado is now a trustee in the county jail.

NO TICKET, NO FINE.

Wong Mar, a Chinese, was fined $5 and costs by Justice R. B. Rawlins Thursday afternoon on a charge of simple assault. The man was alleged to have slapped a newboy who entered the restaurant where he was employed. When his fine was announced Wong drew out a large roll of bills.

"Give me my receipt and I'll pay it," he said, and refused to part with the money until he got his voucher.
